Cold Weather – On Its Way

Take care of your horses with one of the various horse blankets in stock at Double L Feed.

- ✓ Windbreaker Blanket: a medium weight blanket perfect for horses in a barn or under a shed
- ✓ All-Weather Turn-out Blanket: a waterproof blanket that can be used inside a barn or shed, but that will also provide extra protection for horses in the pasture

Measuring Your Horse

Need to measure for that new blanket?
Just do the following:

1. Using tape measure, start at the center of the chest.
2. Stretch the tape measure horizontally (make sure it stays level) around the widest part of the shoulder and hindquarter until you reach the center of the tail.
3. If your measurement falls between available sizes, purchase the larger size.
